A DAY IN MILWAUKEE.

If you have but one day in Milwaukee, and only time to see the outside of the city, take a carriage in the morning, drive out Grand Avenue, through the Menomonee Valley, and to Soldiers' Home, into the princely grounds which the nation has prepared for its disabled Volunteers. Broad avenues, miniature lakes, calm shady walks, and rustic bridges; flowergardens and conservatories, sunny slopes, and grand old woods; and in the midst, a home for every one who was disabled, that our country might not be. No visitor to Milwaukee should fail to go there; every year the men who did the work are becoming fewer, their hair whiter, and a drive through the Home, which the nation they saved has prepared for them to pass their remaining years in, cannot but be, perhaps, the noblest thing to remember of a trip to Milwaukee. Passing out of the gate, onto the Mukwonago Road over the Forest Home, up the silent path we all must take some day, past the blooming parterres and the leafless graves, fountains and evergreens, monuments and memories. Those wishing to visit Forest Home, may do so on any day in the week, as the cemetery is open to visitors daily from sunrise to sunset. Returning from this beautiful place of rest and again entering the city on the South Side, all the solemn reflections which thronged upon you in quiet Forest Home, are at once dispelled by the turmoil of a busy cities' life—by the views of the grain elevators, shipping, canals, lumberyards and freight depots in the Menomonee Valley. If you have time left, turn to the right and drive through Bay View, now the 17th Ward, passing its Rolling Mills and factories, out to the College of St. Francis on the Lake, and return through the business part of the city.

After dinner, or lunch as you will, order your carriage again, and take in the East Side, tell your driver to go round about in the Seventh Ward, through the parked streets, passing Court House and Juneau Park, out Prospect Avenue, onto the beautiful Lake Drive and the far-famed White Fish

Bay road. It is not the shell-road of New Orleans, but drive out the White Fish Bay road in good lively company, and see which you prefer! You pass a dozen places to stop at, and the more frequently you stop, the more lovely the view becomes. Passing teams of all sorts, from the staid family carriage to the dashing phaeton of "la dame de qui on dit beacoup de mal," everything and everybody is to be found on the White Fish Bay road on a summer's afternoon, and there is room for all. A halt should be made at Lake Park, and a walk down to the lake beach indulged in, then on to White Fish Bay and the nets. Should time permit, cross the loveliest country roads to Pleasant Valley or Blatz Park across the River and take a supper there al fresco; and if you don't vote that they can cook a game supper there to a turn, and understand all the etc's, and that Milwaukee is a jolly place to pass one day in, it must be the fault of your liver.

From Pleasant Valley you can, if you desire, float homeward in the moonlight down the river by boat to North Ave. bridge, where your carriage will await you, and bring you back to the city in the evening. If not too fatigued, a visit to the Summer Gardens will prove to be a satisfactory ending of the days' pleasures.

THE VICINITY OF MILWAUKEE.

Drives in the Suburbs.*)

Having, in addition to a moderately well-filled purse, an abundance of that other most necessary adjunct to a full enjoyment of a vacation—leisure time—at your disposal, and taking it for granted that you delight in a drive or ramble in pure, fresh country air, it may be serviceable to enumerate a few of the most favorite routes to select.

Beginning at random, take Reed or Clinton Street, and Kinnickinnic Avenue—passing the Glass Works—leading to Bay View with its great Rolling Mills; then, after a thorough inspection of the interesting village, now belonging to the city proper, and the mills, take the Lake road, which will bring you to St. Francis Seminary, with its handsome environs, seven miles from the Post Office, having a lovely view of Lake Michigan all the way. Should you desire to return by another road, drive one mile further south, then to the west on to the Nicholson Road, leading through a beautiful farming country, re-entering the city at Bay View on Kinnickinnic Ave., passing the House of Correction. This is both a County and a State Prison, and, for an admission fee of 10 cents, all the departments may be visited.

For a short afternoon drive you can go out Grand Ave., turn to the right through the toll gate near Miller's Brewery over a winding valley road, passing the stone quarries, County Farm, Insane Asylum, through Wauwatosa and thence home.

Should you feel disposed for a drive "mutterseelenallein," or at most with one or two good friends, take Racine Street,

*) The roads mentioned herein, and the streets in the city leading thereto, are designated on C. N. Caspar Co.'s county map, price 25 cents, and a complete list of all streets in the city will be found on C. N. Caspar Co.'s city map.

over Racine Street Bridge, out Humboldt Ave., passing many flower beds and green houses, arriving at the "deserted village" of Humboldt, and, if the feminine members of your company are so inclined, they may have their fortunes told in the woods beyond. Stop at Pleasant Valley, and, after refreshments, return to town when "the lowing herd winds slowly o'er the lea".

Far-famed Prospect Avenue forms the beginning of the White Fish Bay road, which extends for several miles along the bluffs of Lake Michigan to White Fish Bay, passing through the beautiful Lake Park on the way. No tourist sojourning in Milwaukee should fail to visit White Fish Bay, and the fatigues attendant upon the trip may be comfortably alleviated at White Fish Bay, assisted by the invigorating breeze from the lake.

A longer tour than those described above, is a trip to Cedarburg, 18 miles from Milwaukee, starting at 12th Street, passing Union Cemetery, on the Cedarburg Plank Road.

Tall lombardy poplars line the horizon, and deep beech woods, stone fences and old orchards greet you along the way. The stopping places replace the mile-stones; you will pass through the hamlets of Mequon and Thienesville on your way, and arrive at the little German city of Cedarburg.

After a tour through the neat streets of this pretty town, Hilgen's Spring, one mile from the city, is your objective point. This beautiful spring, with its cool, crystal waters, lies secluded in the quiets of an ancient forest. What strange stories of life and love those deep silent beechwoods and the old house buried in their branches could tell The banks of the little river winding its way through the grove, the alleyways among the beeches have re-echoed the joy and light-hearted laughter of many young people.

A well-kept hotel will hospitably receive you, and your team will find good care. Geh' nur hin!

One of the most charming drives for miles around, and with which even the Milwaukeeans themselves are but slightly acquainted, requires an afternoon to accomplish, but it will amply repay those who have the time to undertake it. Go out Third Street and follow it, even after it deviates a little toward the northwest, until you reach a place ½ mile beyond the Shooting Park, where three roads branch off in fan-shape. Of these you choose the right hand road, running due north to Port Washington, and pass along between little German "truck farms", over the bridge across the Milwaukee river, were the smoke from the cement works is visible towards the east. From here 2¾ miles of the same road takes you through a lovely country to Green Tree Inn, which you leave on your left, unless the ride has made you thirsty, and continue on the same road another 1¼ mile, then, just after passing a little church on your right, you turn squarely towards the east, following a road which will take you to the lake shore. Just as you reach the crest of the bluff, the road winds in a southerly direction down a steep hill, and as you descend this hill, a panorama of land and water unfolds itself before your eyes, to which there are few equals. For a considerable distance, the bluff recedes hundreds of feet away from the shore, and is crowned with a dense forest, while the intervening space, flat as a floor, is divided up into little farms, mostly owned by German farmers, and at the very edge of the water the road winds along, flanked by a pebbly waste, over which the surf rolls and moans. The lake stretches away towards the east, limitless and awe-inspiring as the ocean, but towards the south the bluff again reappears at the water's edge, and the White Fish Bay hotel glimmers in the shunshine on its crest. A mile and a half of this kind of traveling brings you to another hill, over which the road, winding between fields of daisies and sweet clover, carries you back to the upper country again and the Green Tree Inn, where you turn south and homeward. But if you only follow this road until you strike the second cross-road leading east, after you left the Inn, and turn there, you will again find yourself on the lake shore at White Fish Bay and can take this beautiful drive back to the city, having seen the only place in the neighborhood, aside from the flats in the city itself, where the bluff does not rise steep and unapproachable from a narrow and stony shore.

Milwaukee, Area of.

In the corporate limits of Milwaukee there are 22.53 square miles; the city is 6 miles long from north to south and about 3.7 miles from east to west. The city is 85 miles from Chicago and about the same distance from Madison, the capitol of the state. Its reputation as a summer resort and adapted for conventions is most admirably sustained by its natural location and surroundings.

Mitchell Heights, also called Murray Hill.

In the 18th Ward.

Milwaukee as a Summer Resort.

The reputation of Milwaukee as a summer resort is most admirably sustained by its location and surroundings. The absence of fences in all the residence streets of the metropolis of Wisconsin, bespeaking, as it does, a sweet fraternity and mutual confidence, gives even to the city itself that appearance of comfort, restfulness and freedom which makes it so ideal a residence city. Its location, upon the shores of one of the most beautiful of the great lakes, where by turns the dashing waves beat upon the beach, or the gentle ripple, send to end its brief existence by some wandering zephyr, lulls you to restfulness, gives to it an individuality quite its own. The finer streets and avenues, shaded by trees now half a century old, lined with magnificent houses, possessed by the second generation from the pioneers, give cool and comfort and that air of staid respectability which adds to one's sense of happiness.

Public Museum.

The Public Museum of the City of Milwaukee is one of the leading institutions of its kind in the United States. It especially excels in its beautiful life-like group of mammals, in its fine collections of native and exotic birds, and in its well arranged paleontological and entomological material. The Museum has been created for the education and entertainment of the public. The Museum had its origin in the specimens of natural history obtained by the late excellent pedagogue. Peter Engelmann, and later by the Naturhistorischer Verein von Wisconsin. In order to extend the value of this collection Mr. August Stirn, Alderman of the Second Ward, introduced a resolution in the Common Council on Jan. 23d, 1882, to the effect that the collections of the above named society be turned over to the City to be maintained as a Free Public Museum. The transfer was made, and in the following year was opened to the public in the Exposition Building. It is managed by a Board of 9 Trustees, Henry L. Ward being the Custodian and Secretary. The Museum has now been transferred to the new Library and Museum Building Cor. Grand Ave. and 8th St., where its exhibition space is 36,000 square feet against 12,00 square feet in its old quarters.

THE MILWAUKEE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Was originally started by the Young Men's Association organized Dec. 1847, incorporated March 8, 1852, and who on March 8, 1878, presented the City of Milwaukee with the nucleus of a carefully selected Library. The present Public Library was organized by an Act of the Legislature approved Feby. 7, 1878, and was opened to the public July 8, 1878, with Major Henry Baetz as its first Librarian. It was however during the many years active service of his successor, the late Klas August Linderfelt, that the Library attained its present wonderful growth and usefulness. His eminent ability as a linguist and a scholar, combined with a thorough and practical knowledge of bibliography enabling him to plan the foundation of this remarkable Library, now considered one of the best in this country. The Library is supported by a tax of 8/25 of a mill on the assessed value of the taxable property of the city. Dec. 1900 the Library owned 122,000 Volumes of books. It removed to its present palatial building during the summer of 1898. Geo. W. Peckham is the present Librarian.

Public Schools.

Milwaukee's system of Public Schools ranks high in educational matters. The first school was opened in 1836. Board of School Commissioners was organized in 1846, which organization was made part of the City Charter that same year. It was reorganized and the office of Supt. of Schools created in 1859. The system has since been improved on until now it is nearly perfect. The present body is known as Board of School Directors and is appointive, one from each ward. The first High School was started in 1857, discontinued 1860, reestablished 1868; there are four High Schools located on the different sides of the river.

Through the example and impulse first given by the German-English Academy in 1872, which had established the first Froebelian Kindergarten as a part of its primary department, the Milwaukee School Board in 1881, upon recommendation of Superintendent James MacAllister instituted a Kindergarten as a model for the Kindergarten training school conducted by Miss Stewart.

Every complete public primary department has for years past been provided with a Kindergarten, and there are 94 half-day public Kindergartens conducted in 49 public school buildings.

There are now 30 district schools and 22 primary schools; and the city has again stepped into the front rank of educational progress by introducing manual training in all grades of all the public schools as an integral part of the curriculum.

This is a somewhat belated result of the spirited campaign conducted by the Milwaukee Manual Training Association in 1898 and 1899.

Whitefish Bay Resort.

Prospect Avenue and Lake Drive—so called from their locations along the edge of the grass-covered bluff— following the lake, turning slightly to the right, becomes one of the most beautiful drives of our great country, following the shore for over five miles, giving glimpses through the trees of the limpid water and by turns embowered by the great arching oaks and elms, passing through Lake Park leads to what is known as the Pabst Whitefish Bay Resort. Resting on the bluff, its site admirably chosen at the very center of a deep, perfectly semi-circular, sweeping bay, upon the grassy bank over a hundred feet above the surface of the water, and shaded by a grove of arching trees, is the pavilion building pictured variously in these pages. It is accessible primarily by the broad and perfect highway already described, by electric cars, the railroad, and by steamer. During the summer season daily concerts are given by a celebrated band, and rarely do strangers come to Milwaukee who do not spend at least an afternoon or evening at this famous place.

SUGGESTIONS TO THE PUBLIC.

COMPLAINTS should be made to the Postmaster, with all facts. In case of delays or improper delivery, the envelopes should accompany complaints. In case of loss, blanks are furnished for full statement.

DO NOT OPEN LETTERS WRONGLY DELIVERED, but endorse "Wrongly Delivered," with signature and return.

THIRD OR FOURTH CLASS MATTER will be detained, unless fully prepaid.

ENDORSE EVERY LETTER AND PACKAGE with your address, that it may be returned in case of non-delivery. Your printed address on government stamped envelopes, when ordered, costs no more.

PACKAGES should be addressed plainly, and wrapped and tied securely, otherwise addresses and wrappers will be lost or torn off in the mails.

SMALL PACKAGES may be accidentally lost or overlooked and delayed in the mails. Special care in mailing such packages would be prudent.

THE SAME OR A LIKE NAME, belonging to many persons, is a common cause of accident in delivery of mail matter, especially in cities. Special care in address alone will prevent possible accident in such case.

LETTER-PAPER AND BILL-HEADS should contain distinct addresses for the guidance of correspondents.

NAME OF STATE should always be written on address in full. Also name of County, especially for small offices. Also correct number and street, on letters for cities.

REGISTER all important letters.

CHANGE OF RESIDENCE OR PLACE OF BUSINESS should be promptly made known to your postoffice in writing. Subscribers to papers should also notify publishers.

HOTELS, CLUBS, or BOARDS OF TRADE should return to postoffice unclaimed mail matter for transient parties within ten days, except when otherwise requested.

HOTEL ADDRESS CARD does not secure return of a letter. Writer's address should be added.

LETTERS, POSTAL CARDS AND PARCELS ONCE PRE-PAID at first-class rates will be forwarded on request of addressees, without extra charge. Postage must be re-paid on other matter forwarded.

MAIL-BOXES at your business place and residence would prevent delay of carriers.

SIGN FULL NAME to all letters, so that in case of non-delivery letters of value may be returned.

POSTOFFICE EMPLOYEES cannot be held responsible for the delivery of letters, partially or otherwise imperfectly addressed; nor in case several persons bear the same address as contained on a letter. Nor is one office directly responsible for the delinquencies of another, or of the railway service.

LETTERS FOR DELIVERY by carrier should be addressed to correct street and number.

Letters not containing correct street and number are referred to the Directory, or to the General Delivery.

Letters not intended for delivery by carrier, should be addressed to "General Delivery."

Stamps should be placed on the upper right hand corner of envelope; address of writer on upper left hand corner, and special directions on lower left hand corner. Unusually small envelopes or packages are to be avoided when practicable.

U. S. OFFICIAL POSTAL GUIDE can be obtained at Post Office. Prices: January volume, in paper, $2.00; in cloth $2.50. January volume, in paper, and monthly supplement $2.50.

Private mailing cards, now properly designated "Post Card" bearing written messages may be mailed within the United States with one cent stamp attached, or to foreign countries with two cent stamp attached, provided they conform to the size and quality of the government postal card, to-wit: 3¼x5½ inches, weighing 6 lbs. 3 ozs. to the 1,000 and bear on the address side the printed words "Post Card."

Milwaukee County Court House.

THREE DIVISIONS OF THE CITY.

For the better arrangement of the numbers, the city is divided into three divisions, as follows:

1. The East Division.—Includes all that portion of the city east of the Milwaukee River.

2. The West Division.—Includes all that portion of the city west of Milwaukee River and north of Menomonee River, Menomonee Canal and Canal Street.

3. The South Division.—Includes all that portion of the city south of Canal Street and the Menomonee River.

The East Division.

For all streets running north and south, Wisconsin Street is taken for the base line, and 400 for the base number, the numbers increasing northward from Wisconsin Street, and decreasing southward from that street.

For all streets running east and west in this division, Broadway is taken for the base street, and 100 for the base number, the numbers increasing eastward and decreasing westward.

By this arrangement it will be noticed that the number of any lot of any street will be the same as any number of its corresponding lot on any other street in this division of the city.

The West Division.

For all the streets running north and south in this division, the same rule is applied as in the East Division. Wells Street being taken for the base street, and 200 for the base number, the numbers north of Wells Street increasing from 200 and the numbers south of Wells decreasing from 200. The only variation from this rule is on West Water Street, where the old numbers have been retained.

For all streets running east and west in this division, what is called the "Philadelphia System" is followed—that is, each square is called 100. For example, West Water or 1st St. is callled 100, 2d St. 200, 3d St. 300, and so on to the city limits.

THE SOUTH DIVISION.

The manner of numbering is the same as in the East Division. For all the streets running north and south, Pierce Street is taken for the base street, and 300 for the base number — the numbers increasing south and decreasing north. For all streets running east and west, Reed Street is taken for the base street, and 300 for the base number — the numbers increasing west and decreasing east.

MILWAUKEE AND MENOMONEE RIVERS.

Milwaukee River enters the city from the north, running nearly parallel with the lake to the junction of the Menomonee River; thence in a southeasterly direction to the straight-cut; thence east to the lake. Menomonee River enters Milwaukee River from the west, between East Water Street and Reed Street bridges.

METHOD OF NUMBERING THE HOUSES.

Milwaukee's handsome parked streets and noble avenues are admired and enjoyed by thousands of transient visitors every summer, the entire residence portion being one shaded, fenceless park.

There are over 1000 streets, everyone of which you will find in the alphabetical Index giving all streets, on the map herewith, specially drawn for this Guide. The streets are laid out very regularly, mostly running parallel to one another, east and west, and north and south. The method of numbering the houses is very simple, the numbers on all streets in each principal division of the city running in the same direction corresponding exactly, so that, for instance, starting eastward on Mason Street, it will be found that the number of the house fronting on one of the side streets and situated on the north west corner of Mason Street is 437, no matter whether it is on East Water Street, Broadway, Milwaukee, Jefferson,, or Astor Street. — Keeping this regularity, and the difference in the series of numbers employed on the East, West and South Sides in mind, the following tables are sufficient for locating at once any house in the city, the number and street of which is known.

On the East Side of the Milwaukee River the houses are numbered as follows:

1.—All streets, west of Cambridge Ave., running north and south (the names of which will be found on the city map or under No. 3 first division below) are intersected at the following numbers by the streets running east and west, viz:

Washington Monument, Grand Ave.

INTRODUCTION.

This practical up-to-date Directory of Milwaukee gives all Streets, and Street Corner Numbers, within its City Limits, showing how to reach any desired point and what Street Car Line to take.

This Street and House Number Directory and Key to all Electric Car Lines has been prepared with no limit of painstaking to insure absolute accuracy as to its details.

KEY OR EXPLANATION.

What Car Line to Take to Reach a Certain Point.

Nearly all the Electric Car Lines center on or about Grand Ave. and West Water Street, or Wisconsin and East Water Streets. To ascertain what Car Line to take to reach the Street and House Number desired, refer to the Directory Alphabet for name of said Street. The figure in bold face type opposite the Corner Street Number indicates by number the Car Line to be taken and for name of Car Line with its respective number see "Numbers and Official Names of all Milwaukee and Suburban Trolley Car Lines." Where no Car Line Number is given, the nearest number either above or below in the list of streets under the name of street looked for, shows the Car Line reaching the point desired or its nearest destination.

FOR EXAMPLE.

Burleigh St. (East Side).....316 6.

The figure 6 indicates the number of Car Line to be taken and by referring to the list of Car Lines or Routes on the following page it will be seen that this number represents the Oakland Avenue and Delaware Avenue Line. The figure 316 is the House or Corner Number at the corner of said street

If No. 25 Burleigh Street, West Side, is to be reached, the Directory will show that Car Line No. 7 must be taken; if No. 301 Burleigh Street is wanted, Car Lines No. 4 or 5; if No. 1202 Burleigh Street, Car Line No. 10; No. 3001 Burleigh Street, Car Line No. 2, etc.

It will be noticed in the above, that it depends entirely on the House Number of the Street as to what Car Line to take in reaching a desired point.

The above example and all references given in the Directory are based on the presumption that the Car taken starts from the center of the City or near the corners of Wisconsin and East Water Streets, or West Water Street and Grand Ave. if, however, the Car is taken from any other part of the City, the Car Line to be used must be selected accordingly. In this case reference can be made to C. N. Caspar Co.'s City Map, folded and enclosed at the end of this Directory which gives all Car Lines and Routes, designating them by numbers.

For further information as to all the points reached by the Electric System of Car Lines, see "Diagrams of Car Lines."

The Fare on all City Car Lines is 5c for adults; 3c for children under 10 years, with privilege of a transfer ticket for one other Line.

TRANSFER SYSTEM.

Every passenger is entitled to one free transfer from any Car Line to another. Transfers must be asked for when paying fare to the Conductor and must be used in the direction punched, in first car leaving transfer intersection, after the time punched on date issued.

Grand Ave., Looking West.

The Numbers of Crossing Car Lines are given on the Diagram of Car Lines in large bold figures. Free transfers will be given to passengers, when paying fare, to and fro from East to West Side, at the following named corners: On State St., cor. 3d St. to Martin St., cor. East Water St. On Clinton St., cor. National Ave. to Reed St., cor. National Ave. On Clinton St., cor. Washington St., to Reed St., cor. Washington St. On Clinton St., cor. Greenfield Ave., to Reed St., cor. Greenfield Ave. Passengers will be obliged to walk a block to take advantage of these free transfers.

DIAGRAMS OF ALL ELECTRIC CAR LINES.

The following list embraces in consecutive order, from No. 1 to 28, all the Electric Trolley Lines operated in Milwaukee and vicinity, with their official names as stated on the Cars of each Line.

Note. The figures after the street names are the house numbers on the corners of the streets; thus: 316.

The Streets on which intersecting Car Lines run are indicated by a medium heavy line, viz.:  The figures representing the numbers of each intersecting Car Line, are given in a somewhat larger size, thus: 6. The names of these Lines can be found under the number or figure in list of Car Lines and diagrams of same, both of which are contained in the pages following.

C. N. Caspar Co.'s Map of the City and Vicinity, folded and enclosed in the last part of this Directory, contains all Car Lines known by their official numbers and can be easily looked up by referring to the Key or Explanation.

The Route and Time Table of each Car Line is given on the Diagram of such Car Line, stating distance; running time, and the intervals at which Cars run, also giving at the starting points, center and terminals, the time of first Car in the morning and the last Car at night.

HOW TO "PULL A BOX."

A key for the Ordinary or Locked Boxes may be found in the house at the corner the box is on, or in the house next thereto.

Upon the discovery of a fire in your neighborhood, get a key, go to the box nearest to the fire, unlock the door, pull the hook all the way down and let go. Do not jerk the hook down and up, but pull it down steadily as far as you can and let go.

No key is required for the Keyless Door Boxes; turn the handle to the right, open the door, pull the hook all the way down and let go, then close the door.

Wait at the Box until the Department arrives and inform it where the fire is.
